CORAM : A.M.KHANWILKAR,J.

21st December 2004

P.C.:

. This is second bail application filed by the Applicant in succession. The argument canvassed in this application is that this Court mainly rejected the prayer for bail as there was apprehension of Applicant likely to flee from the ends of justice, as he has no permanent place of abode. In the first place, the assumption of the learned Counsel that that was the only reason is incorrect. That was one of the reasons which also weighed, besides the reasons which are already indicated by the Court below on merits of the case insofar as the present Applicant is concerned. If it is so, not a case for entertaining successive bail application. Hence, dismissed. The trial of the case is, however, expedited. The case be assigned to the Fast Track Court, if not already done, to ensure early disposal of the trial.
